Thompson, ND 58278
701-599-2800

This past year was my first year of college, I attended UND and lived in the dorms, it was a very different but exciting experience! Next year I will attend NDSU to pursue some sort of career involving horses. I have loved horses for as long as I can remember and when I volunteered one summer for a therapy program involving horses I was hooked. The following year I got my first American Quarter Horse, Obsessive Mr. "Tigger" I showed him mostly at local shows but was able to attend a couple NDQHA shows each summer. After complications with Tigger I got My Chips Are Lucky, I have become alot more involved with NDQHA and NDQHYA thanks to Lucky and I am so grateful for that! I have met alot of great people and had many great experiences being a part of the NDQHYA, and I am so excited for the 2012 season!

Outside of my horse life, I am very busy with school and different organizations like National Honor Society. Currently, I am employed with Pride Inc. as a Youth Mentor, which is very rewarding. SOPHIA HERMAN AND THE SLOWSMOBILE

I hope you all had a great 2011 show season and good luck in the 2012 season. My name is Sophia Herman and I grew up on a small farm outside Walhalla, North Dakota. I started riding when I was about 7, my first horse was Windy Windsong "Spice". I purchased The Slowsmobile "Angus" last December, in hopes of advancing in pattern classes. I never dreamt that showing Halter would have been possible for me, but with encouragement, we did it! My only goals were to get through the class without being disqualified and not collapse. I'm very proud of Angus! We qualified for the AQHA World Show in halter and even placed under one judge! Trail is for sure my favorite class now, mostly because Angus for sure knows what he's doing! The 2011 show season was amazing, something I will never forget. I would like to thank my trainer Jenna Mickelson, she is very inspiring and always gives me a push when I need it! I wouldn't have gotten this far without your help, Thank you so much! I would also like to thank all my friends and family for supporting and cheering me on. To all of you inspiring people keep doing what you are doing, you may touch someone's life without even knowing it

AMATEUR SPOTLIGHT

SHAWN MONTGOMERY AND A REAL GOOD ASSET

Marge Schwartz

Shawn has grown up around American Quarter Horses his whole life. In 1963 Shawn and his Grandfather bought his first pony named Musty at an auction. They paid $19.00. That began a lifelong love of horses and riding. He and his three sisters showed Quarter Horses in North Dakota and the upper Midwest beginning in the late 1960's. Shawn's mother, Annabel, worked to bring more AQHA shows to North Dakota, including a two day all youth show in Grand Forks that at one time was one of the largest all youth QH shows in the country. Shawn has showed in nearly all classes offered except probably jumping and cattle events. In 1978 he represented ND at the youth world show in Tulsa, OK with his reining horse, Cody Aire. Later he owned another good reining horse, and increased his knowledge by working with Neil Henning from MN.

Shawn and his wife Krista own and operate the MonteRay Ranch in Manvel, ND, home to 80 tremendous quarter horses, App's and paints. This ensures that life is never boring. Shawn's "real" job is farming. Luckily he loves farming as much as horses. A few years back when he was farming a huge amount of land and also running a trucking company with many trucks running nationwide, he realized he was really missing out, on everything. He made a decision that would effectively change his life radically, choosing to cut back and be a parent that would be available and a participant in his children's lives instead of a distant spectator. Shawn says that it is the best thing that he has ever done and he doesn't regret it one bit. He has enjoyed having less stress and having time to attend most of his three children, Evan, Ashley and Melissa's school events, horse shows, and rodeo's. Shawn has equal admiration for a superfast barrel horse as he does for a pleasure horse.

One of Shawn's proudest achievements was "novicing out" of horsemanship in one limited show year riding his son Evan's former show horse A Real Good Asset. Now that he has to show against all the beautiful girls, including his two daughters, in plain Amateur horsemanship, he sort of wishes that that wouldn't have happened!

Shawn has served on many boards and committee's to do with farming over the years. He has been a NDQHA open board member for the last few years and has thoroughly enjoyed being a part of this great association. Being a member of this association since forever it seems, he hopes for its continued growth and success.

Hello Exhibitors, Members and Advertisers.

Hope you enjoy this year's Directory. Thanks for the great ads. I always love to see what people come up with. I wanted to let you all know that once the Directory is printed and mailed out, that I will be scanning it into the NDQHA website.

The Class Sponsorships were a hit last year. The cost is $100.00 for the show season or $25.00 for one show. This includes your name or business being mentioned at the shows, your info on the Home page of the website and your info in the Annual Directory. This is a very economical way to advertise. This option gives you a lot of bang for your buck.

I have started to put together a history of all the past years of the ND Quarter Horse. I would hope that you would take a minute to check that page on the website occasionally to see what has been added. I have already received some great things from John Hovde, Ted Ressler & Connie Armstrong. These include Directories and newsletters from the 90's and info from 1968.

I have also been in contact with the 1st NDQHA Secretary, Ardis Taylor. She resides in Lisbon, ND. She has put together a book on the beginning of the Association and that has gone to a publisher. She let me know that I could get a copy when it is printed.

Stories from shows, your first show, mishaps in traveling to a show are all great to remember, especially years later when they are funny. Old photos and newsletters are fun. So drop me a line.
Thanks Sherri

NORTH DAKOTA QUARTER HORSE ASSOCIATION

Hello NDQHA Members!

2012 looks to be full of excitement for the world of the American Quarter Horse. Many changes are being made on the National level in the next two years that will impact our enjoyment and utilization of our wonderful association. Many of you have heard about some of these already and I encourage you all to go the AQHA website to explore these changes in more detail.

Some of these changes take us back to the roots of this wonderful breed. There are new Ranch Horse Pleasure classes which we will be offering at our ND shows this year as well as the Ranch Heritage Challenge, sort of an Incentive Fund for ranch horses, in which breeders are nominated to compete in ranching competitions. Also the new AQHA Trail Challenge Program allowing our classic trail mounts to compete in a more natural trail environment and earn "trail challenge merits" that will be recorded on the horse's AQHA record in both adult and youth divisions. These programs provide members new avenues for promoting their talented American Quarter Horses and us in ND hope to be able to incorporate all of these new options.

On the traditional showing level, there are changes to the Incentive Fund which hope to make this valuable asset more profitable and lucrative for those who buy, sell, breed and show American Quarter Horses. There are also two Novice Championship Shows being added this year to showcase the best in the industry at that level and a new Rookie division for exhibitors and horses with limited showing experience. There are also All Rookie Shows being implemented. The biggest change will be the Leveling Program that will go into full effect in 2013. Several pilot shows are being held this year to test out the new program which aims at giving exhibitors more levels (Intermediate and Progressive) to compete in where they can compete against people and horses at their same experience level. There are several clinics being offered this year as well -one for the youth members and also "Ride the Pattern" clinics given by AQHA Professional Horseman at our shows to expand your knowledge and understanding of current classes. These programs aim to allow more people to both enjoy and continue competing on their American Quarter Horses for many years to come.

The AQHA is also trying to get more children excited about horses. They are developing a "Digital Oats" program for the internet targeting children 7 and under. They are also making changes and advances in the Junior Master Horseman Program that is already in place. In ND we are offering two "Walk/Trot" or "Small Fry" classes this year - both the Pleasure and the Horsemanship. It has been found that when children are exposed to horses when young they tend to carry that through their adult lives. Always remember that children are the future of our association.

In the coming year I hope to see our membership and participation grow and for more people to enjoy the breed we all love. I encourage all of you to participate in our events, show new people what our association has to offer, and go out and get class sponsorships which allow our association to prosper and offer new programs. I wish everyone the best in the year to come and feel free to contact me at any-time with your ideas or concerns.

Thank you all for being a valuable part of NDQHA,

Jenna Mickelson - 2012 NDQHA President
